The Invitatory and Psalter

Prelude	La Nativité	Jean Langlais
---------	--------------------	----------------------

Opening Hymn #102 (st. 1, 2, 4, 6)	Once in royal David's city
------------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Opening Sentences

Officiant: Behold, I bring you good news of a great joy, which will come to all the people; for unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory

Officiant: Lord, open our lips.

Officiant and People: And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia!

Officiant: Alleluia. To us a child is born: O come, let us adore him. Alleluia.

Venite Hymn #83 (st.1, 2, 6)	O come, all ye faithful
------------------------------	--------------------------------

Collect of the Day

Officiant: Almighty God, you have poured upon us the new light of your incarnate Word: Grant that this light, enkindled in our hearts, may shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord

Lessons of the Day

First Reading

Isaiah 61:10-62:3

Reader: A reading from the book of Isaiah.

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 147:13-21

Officiant: Please join me in reciting from Psalm 147.

*13 Worship the Lord, O Jerusalem; **

praise your God, O Zion;

*14 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates; *
he has blessed your children within you.*

*15 He has established peace on your borders; *
he satisfies you with the finest wheat.*

*16 He sends out his command to the earth, *
and his word runs very swiftly.*

*17 He gives snow like wool; *
he scatters hoarfrost like ashes.*

*18 He scatters his hail like bread crumbs; *
who can stand against his cold?*

*19 He sends forth his word and melts them; *
he blows with his wind, and the waters flow.*

*20 He declares his word to Jacob, *
his statutes and his judgments to Israel.*

*21 He has not done so to any other nation; *
to them he has not revealed his judgments. Hallelujah!*

Second Reading

Galatians 3:23-25; 4:4-7

Reader: A reading from the letter to the Galatians.

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Reader: The Word of Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Officiant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Officiant: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'") From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Christmas Hymns from The Hymnal 1982

77 From east to west, from shore to shore

78 O little town of Bethlehem

79 O little town of Bethlehem

80 From heaven above to earth I come

81 Lo, how a Rose e'er
blooming

82 Of the Father's love
begotten

83 O come, all ye faithful

84 Love came down at Christmas

85 O Savior of our fallen race

86 O Savior of our fallen race

87 Hark! the herald angels
sing

88 Sing, O sing, this blessed morn

89 It came upon the
midnight clear

90 It came upon the
midnight clear

91 Break forth, O beauteous
heavenly light

92 On this day earth shall ring

93 Angels, from the realms
of glory

94 While shepherds watched
their flocks by night

95 While shepherds watched
their flocks by night

96 Angels we have heard on high

97 Dost thou in a manger lie

98 Unto us a boy is born

99 While shepherds kept their watching

100 Joy to the world! the Lord is come

101 Away in a manger, no
crib for his bed

102 Once in royal David's city

103 A child is born in Bethlehem, alleluia

104 A stable lamp is lighted

105 God rest you merry,
gentlemen

106 Christians, awake, salute
the happy morn

107 Good Christian friends,
rejoice

108 Now yield we thanks and praise to Christ

109 The first Nowell the angel did say

110 The snow lay on the ground

111 Silent night, holy night

112 In the bleak midwinter

113 Duérmete, Niño lindo
(Oh sleep now, holy baby)

114 'Twas in the moon of wintertime

115 What child is this, who,
laid to rest
